Swagger 2.0 vs OpenAPI Structure Change
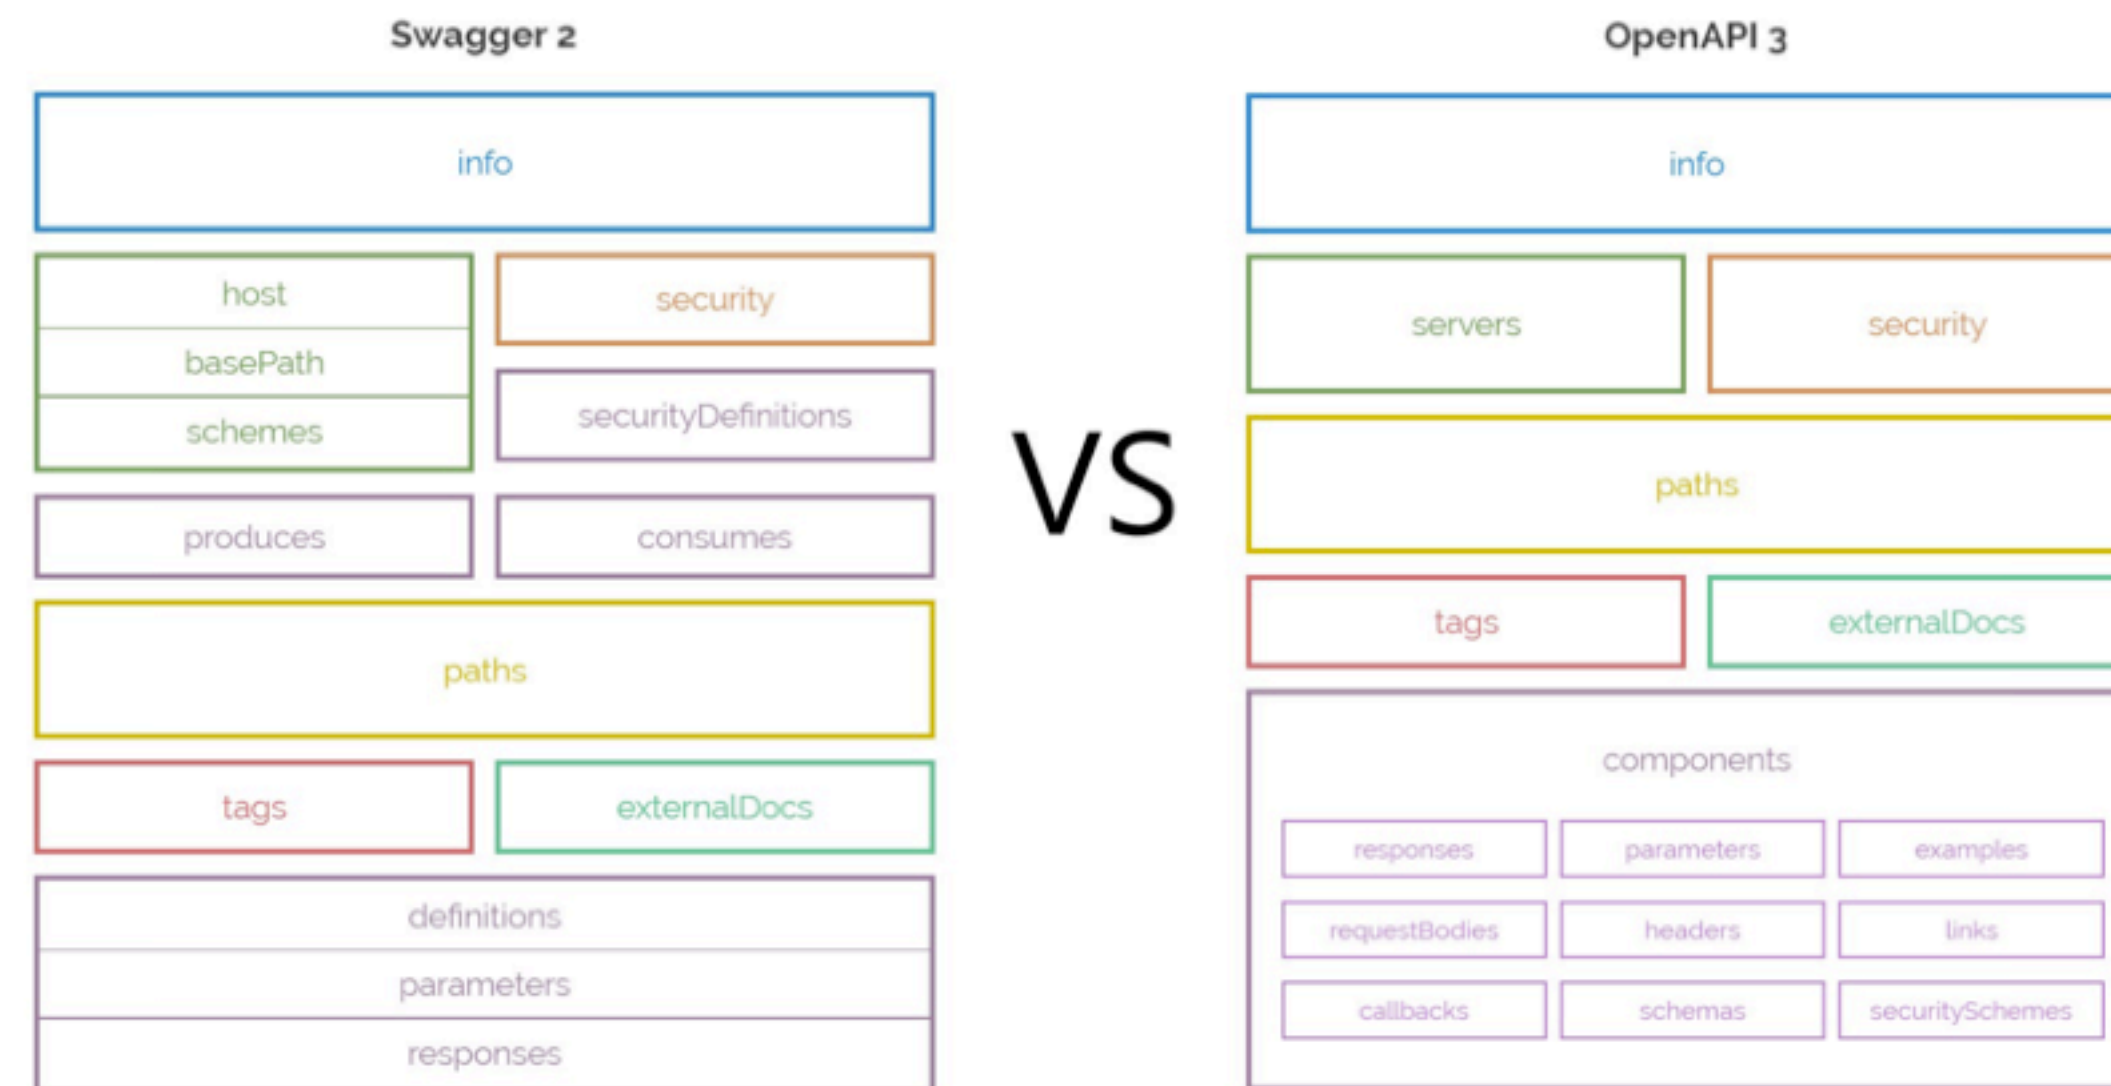

Swagger Diff Piece by Piece

```
 1-  swagger: '2.0'                                                      1+ openapi: 3.0.0
 2   info:                                                               2  info:
 3-   description: 'Swagger Demo, including swagger-codegen, swagger2markup and asciidocto  3+   description: Swagger Demo, including swagger-codegen, swagger2markup and asciidoctor.
 4    version: v1.1.0                                                     4    version: v1.1.0
 5    title: Swagger Demo                                                 5    title: Swagger Demo
 6-   termsOfService: 'http://www.apache.org/licenses/LICENSE-2.0.html'   6+   termsOfService: http://www.apache.org/licenses/LICENSE-2.0.html
 7    contact:                                                            7    contact:
 8     name: qct                                                          8     name: qct
 9-    url: 'http://website.com'                                          9+    url: http://website.com
10     email: testing@gmail.com                                         10     email: testing@gmail.com
11    license:                                                          11    license:
12     name: Apache License                                             12     name: Apache License
13-    url: 'http://www.apache.org/licenses/LICENSE-2.0.html'           13+    url: http://www.apache.org/licenses/LICENSE-2.0.html
14-  host: '127.0.0.1:8080'                                             14+
15-  basePath: /                                                        15+ servers:
                                                                        16+  - url: http://127.0.0.1:8080
                                                                        17+  - url: https://127.0.0.1:8080
                                                                        18+
16   tags:                                                              19  tags:
17    - name: book-api                                                  20   - name: book-api
18     description: Book Api                                            21    description: Book Api
19    - name: category-api                                              22   - name: category-api
20     description: Category Api                                        23    description: Category Api
21-  schemes:
22-   - http 23-   - https
```